

WHEREAS, libraries are accessible and inclusive places that foster a sense of connection and build community; and

WHEREAS, libraries connect people to technology, providing access to broadband internet, computers, and training that are critical for accessing education and employment opportunities; and

WHEREAS, libraries offer opportunities for everyone to connect with new ideas and become their best selves through access to multimedia content, programs, and classes – in addition to books; and

WHEREAS, libraries strive to develop and maintain programs and collections that are as diverse as the populations they serve and ensure equity of access for all; and

WHEREAS, libraries are cornerstones of democracy, promoting the free exchange of information and ideas for all.

NOW, THEREFORE, be it resolved that I, Steve Karsjen, proclaim National Library Week, April 23-29, 2023. During this week, I encourage all residents to connect with their library by visiting online or in person to access resources and services.

Dated this 10 day of April 2023
